Winter blasts causing pneumonia, pleurisy and consumption will soon be here. Cure your cough now, and strengthen your lungs with Foley's Honey and Tar. Do not risk starting the winter with weak lungs when Foley's Honey and Tar will cure the most obstinate coughs and colds, and prevent serious results. Sold by All Druggists. D & W

The Quick Comfort natural gas heating stove makes the room comfortable quicker than any other gas stove. The price is a little less and your gas bill will be a little less when you use them. For sale only by Bivens, Corhn & Frensley.

Best fern, any variety—$1.50. Best collection palms and ferns—$2.00. Best one dozen cut roses—$1. Best 25 cut roses—$2. Second best 25 cut roses—Clematis, by Mrs. Joe M. London, and one dozen chrysanthemum slips. Best bouquet mixed cut flowers—premium to be named later.

Another class of babies ranging in ages from two to three and a half have been listed for prizes. The same rate of entry fee to be charged as for chrysanthemums. As has been published florists and nurserymen are solicited to exhibit their plants, but only amateurs may compete for prizes. By oversight we omitted Rule 13: "All exhibits intended for competition must be in place in Exhibition Hall by 5 o'clock on the day before the show opens; cut flowers by 9 o'clock on day show opens." A small admission fee will be charged at door. This to be decided later when we can determine just how many other attractions we shall have. We expect to have a large number of attractive booths for exhibit and demonstration of pure foods and other articles. A cooking exhibit and instructions in the culinary art by an expert we expect to be one of the attractive features. The Ingelhart Bros. of Evansville, Ind., have written that they will ship to us within the next few days a full case of their Swan-down Cake Flour and Graham with other interesting articles that will be used in the cooking demonstrations. The pickles offered as prizes were given by Ardmore Wholesale Grocery Company and are the Imperial Gold Medal. Second and third prizes will be given for the ferns and miscellaneous plants if offered later. Let everybody try to force their chrysanthemums to open by Nov. 19. Give lots of sunshine and on cool days use some warm water to water the chrysanthemums. MRS. J. A. BIVENS, Chairman Board Managers.

For Ladies. Yates Center, Kan., Sept. 18, 1908.—After my doctors gave me up to die, Hall's Texas Wonder cured me of kidney and bladder trouble. It is the best medicine on earth. Mrs. H. S. Johnson. Sold by all druggists. D & W

We expect to have a large number of attractive booths for exhibit and demonstration of pure foods and other articles. A cooking exhibit and instructions in the culinary art by an expert we expect to be one of the attractive features. The Ingelhart Bros. of Evansville, Ind., have written that they will ship to us within the next few days a full case of their Swan-down Cake Flour and Graham with other interesting articles that will be used in the cooking demonstrations. The pickles offered as prizes were given by Ardmore Wholesale Grocery Company and are the Imperial Gold Medal. Second and third prizes will be given for the ferns and miscellaneous plants if offered later. Let everybody try to force their chrysanthemums to open by Nov. 19. Give lots of sunshine and on cool days use some warm water to water the chrysanthemums. MRS. J. A. BIVENS, Chairman Board Managers.

For Ladies. Yates Center, Kan., Sept. 18, 1908.—After my doctors gave me up to die, Hall's Texas Wonder cured me of kidney and bladder trouble. It is the best medicine on earth. Mrs. H. S. Johnson. Sold by all druggists. D & W

The Quick Comfort natural gas heating stove makes the room comfortable quicker than any other gas stove. The price is a little less and your gas bill will be a little less when you use them. For sale only by Bivens, Corhn & Frensley.

Best fern, any variety—$1.50. Best collection palms and ferns—$2.00. Best one dozen cut roses—$1. Best 25 cut roses—$2. Second best 25 cut roses—Clematis, by Mrs. Joe M. London, and one dozen chrysanthemum slips. Best bouquet mixed cut flowers—premium to be named later.

Another class of babies ranging in ages from two to three and a half have been listed for prizes. The same rate of entry fee to be charged as for chrysanthemums. As has been published florists and nurserymen are solicited to exhibit their plants, but only amateurs may compete for prizes. By oversight we omitted Rule 13: "All exhibits intended for competition must be in place in Exhibition Hall by 5 o'clock on the day before the show opens; cut flowers by 9 o'clock on day show opens." A small admission fee will be charged at door. This to be decided later when we can determine just how many other attractions we shall have.
